Studio Chus Burés

INTERNATIONALLY ACCLAIMED LIMITED EDITION JEWELLERY COLLECTIONS

Chus Burés, Spain's foremost contemporary designer, is an unconventional creator, an artistic transgressor, who works primarily in the field of jewellery. An esteemed designer, he is distinguished for his innovative, superb designs which have received worldwide critical acclaim. Throughout his highly successful career Chus has collaborated with numerous top international artists, film makers and architects. His limited edition collections have been exhibited through the world including the Museum of Decorative Arts Madrid, the Marlborough Gallery Monaco, the Grand Palais Paris... to name a few. Chus Burés' jewellery has been commended and worn by eminent members of the film and arts world across the globe, in fact some of his designs for the film industry have become so famous that they have a special place in the history of Spanish cinema such as the gold medal designed for the Spanish Film Academy and the Matador hairpin. The Chus Burés Studio, located in Serrano street, Madrid, receives many requests for commissions from institutions, businesses and individual clients. He has designed veritable works of art such as trophies, wine tasting glasses, cutlery and original innovative creations such as the Geocepa which was designed for Bodegas Álvaro Palacios. Such an outpouring of creativity and artistic talent has led to a fruitful relationship with Thailand's government to stimulate the development of contemporary jewellery design. If you are in pursuit of absolute creativity, originality and reflection of a unique creative personality, with a personalised service contact Chus Bures Studio, Madrid. The Chus Bures collection is available at sales points in New York, Switzerland (Basel & Zurich), Japan (Oita & Kyoto) and Paris, France.
